

Beer on Tap

Yoho's Brewing Aooni "Blue Demon" IPA / ABV:7% / $8

A Japanese India Pale Ale, often described as a "West Coast IPA" style with a lingering earthy bitterness. Notes of grapefruit and pine on the palate, balanced by a thick body.

Brooklyn Brewery's Brooklyn Lager / ABV: 5% / $8

A medium-bodied American amber lager known for its firm malt backbone, caramel sweetness, and dry-hopped grapefruit and pine aroma. It has a coppery, amber-gold color and is a versatile beer that pairs well with many foods.

Kirin's Spring Valley "Shiro" Ale / ABV: 5.5% / $8

A craft "white ale" known for its mellow silky texture, fine bubbles, and a floral aroma.

Kirin's Spring Valley "Hojoyun" IPL / ABV: 6% / $8

Hojoyun (豊潤, meaning "rich" or "mellow") This India Pale Lager is known for its rich flavor profile and is the brand's primary expression. The beer has tasting notes of bright honey, red apple, and a light herbal touch of eucalyptus. It has a well-rounded and friendly taste that balances sweetness, bitterness, and citrus notes.

Japanese Whiskey

Suntory's The Chita Single Grain / $11

Produced at the Chita distillery, located in Aichi Prefecture, Japan. Sweet and smooth on the palate, featuring vanilla sponge cake, honeyed tropical fruits, and a hint of mint.

Suntory Royal / $9

Suntory Royal is a well-known Japanese blended whisky that has been a premium offering since its launch in 1960. It was the posthumous blend of Suntory's founder and first master blender, Shinjiro Torii. Notes of dried fruit, chocolate, coffee, and a neat, pleasant, and slightly smoky finish.

The AMAHAGAN World Malt Edition is a series of blended malt whiskies produced by the Nagahama Distillery in Japan, known for its unique blending of Japanese and imported malt whiskies. The series includes several different expressions, many of which have won international awards.

Amahagan Edition No. 1 / $8

A pleasant malty foundation with hints of orange chocolate, lively fruit and soft spices of chili and ginger balanced by creamy banana cake on the finish.

Amahagan Edition No. 2 / Red Wine Cask Finish / $9

A richly fruity, almost jammy taste with sweet red fruits, a unique malt sweetness, black pepper, and orange blossom notes. The palate also has a mineral feel and creamy texture with some tannins and a hint of dark chocolate.

Amahagan Edition No. 3 / Mizunara Oak Cask Finish / $12

Caramel-like oak, roasted orange zest, and fragrant brown sugar on the nose. Hints of dark chocolate caramel, and peppery spice on the palate, balanced by warm red fruit, toasted oak, and crisp citrus notes on the finish.

Amahagan "Yamazakura" / Japanese Cherry Wood Cask Finish / $9

Fragrant wood, wild cherry blossom, and hints of plum, sakuramochi, apricot, and vanilla. Elegant on the palate with sweet orange peel, dark honey, and vanilla custard on the finish.

Amahagan Peated Malt / Bourbon Cask Finish / $9

Refreshing citrus reminiscent of grapefruit, followed by a fragrant, fine smokiness. There are also notes of vanilla, barley sugar, and a buttery, smooth mouthfeel.
